

Header information table including public payer number, insured person details (name, birth date, gender, care status), business details (business number, name, address, contact info), and residence service plan (type, start/end dates, facility name).

Summary table for residence services, including start and end dates, facility name, and total number of short-term admission days (3 days).

Main table for service details with columns for service content, code, unit count, return days, service unit count, public charge unit count, and summary.

Table for specific medical charges, listing injury names (stroke sequelae, hypertension), identification numbers, content, unit counts, return counts, and public charge unit counts.

Summary table for request amount collection, showing breakdown by category (planned units, management units, etc.) and total amounts.

Table for specific charges for designated facilities, listing service content, code, unit price, burden limit, days, total fee, insurance share, public charge days, public charge amount, and user burden amount.